SPECIAL OPPORTUNITY: GLOBESCAN / UIA SURVEY OF INTERNATIONAL ASSOCIATIONS

This year, the UIA is partnering with opinion researchers at GlobeScan (GlobeScan.com) to inaugurate what we hope will be an annual survey of global civil society. The survey will tap civil society organizations' expertise on major global issues as well as views of civil society's role in the world. There will also be an opportunity to vote for the International Civil Society Organization of the Year. Results will be widely publicized and will help to inform ongoing international debate on global issues. All participants will receive a summary of results.

The survey will be hosted online by GlobeScan and should take approximately 10 minutes to complete. If your organization is interested in participating, please tick the box below and nominate an appropriate senior-level officer to be the survey respondent. This will usually be the UIA contact person; if so, just tick the appropriate box. The respondent will receive an email invitation to the survey including a link to the survey website. If the survey respondent chosen is not your UIA contact person, please enter their contact details in the spaces provided. All responses will be confidential and never attributed to either individuals or organizations.

If your organization would prefer not to participate, just leave this page blank.

My organization will participate in the UIA / GlobeScan Survey of International Civil Society.

The survey respondent will be our UIA contact person given above.

Respondent's details (if not UIA contact person).
